

To the good people of St. Peter's,

I am writing to update you on the transition process as you prepare to say farewell to Sulin and begin the search for a new incumbent.

Beginning in August, Alan Naylor will join you as your part-time interim priest. I am so grateful to Alan for agreeing to serve in this way. Alan brings much experience in church leadership and will be a steady and wise presence among you during this transition time. He has walked this interim path with many parishes for us over the years and has much to offer.

Apart from appointing Alan, I am also very pleased to appoint the following people to the search committee who will join me in the process of preparing a parish profile and searching for a new incumbent.

- Eric Macdonald
- Jim Peacock
- Denny Beeman
- Chris Sinclare
- Shirley Farrow
- Mickey Girard
- Nancy Wilkinson

My gratitude to all who offered their time for service. There will be opportunities for all of the congregation to share your perspectives in this process, and I am confident that the search committee members will listen to the parish and represent you well in this process.

In the next few weeks, I hope that you will focus on celebrating the wonderful ministry that you have shared with Sulin over the past several years and thanking her for her service among you.

In faith,

The Right Reverend Anna Greenwood-Lee
bishop
